

else... First "Blanco Financial Transparency Task Force" meeting is 6 p.m. Monday, 147 Lone Star Lane. From the host: "Lone Star Lane is just my driveway...I'm on Rocky Rd, on the left side, 1/2 of mile north of the middle school." Agenda is to get to know each other, set plans for how to function and move forward, and get an overview of the issues we need to look into.

love to meet up for coffee or beer sometime today

[REDACTED]:
I am traveling to Montana early tomorrow and returning Monday, so today is a busy day.

Mike Arnold:
no worries. Monday is good. THANKS

[REDACTED]:
Do you have a City email address yet? I'm glad to send you a few general thoughts to consider.

Mike Arnold:
yessir. mayor@cityofblancotx.gov

[REDACTED]:
Awesome
My 3p meeting just got rescheduled. I can come to city hall if you're around this afternoon. Would Warren be available to join us for the discussion?

Mike Arnold:
I'd rather meet elsewhere. At this point, Warren is not in the loop on the investigatory aspects of what we're doing, only that we're seeking to improve "Financial Transparency and Security." In city staff, only the police chief knows we're investigating possible corruption.

[REDACTED]:
Ok.
Want to meet at redbud at 3

Mike Arnold:
sounds good

[REDACTED]:
See you there
